The Roost Consignment Boutique (The Roost) reserves the right to accept or decline any consignment item. All consignment items must be clean and laundered, free of dust and stains and be in desirable condition and quality for resale.

A maximum of 20 items will be accepted per appointment. All items will be cataloged and numbered with a consignor ID number and stock number. The Roost is not responsible for loss, damage, or theft of any consigned item. The Roost will donate or throw away any items that are brought in in less than satisfactory selling condition.

The Roost agrees to pay the consignor 40% of the selling price for clothes & accessories and 50% for furniture. Consignors may check their account online at therooost.consignoraccess.com. Consignors may pick up money on their account anytime.

The Roost will automatically discount items by 15%, 25% and 50% at four, six and eight week intervals.

The Roost will hold items on consignment for 60-90 days. It is the sole responsibility of the consignor to pick up consigned merchandise after the consignment period. We will hold pulled items up to 1 week. Clothing, accessories and household décor items left longer than 1 week will become the property of The Roost unless otherwise agreed upon. The Roost will donate items to a local charity organization.
